Join the next session of Tools for Navigating, Embracing, and Transforming Chaos with Matthew Armstead, Erva Baden, and Lina Blount July 22nd at 4-5:30pm ET. The theme of this 7th program in the series is Creativity for Navigating a Changed World. The world changes every day, but in this moment of pandemic and uprising against racism, changes can feel, and sometimes are, even more profound. Creativity at this moment can make new systems and ways of being possible and can also ground us in navigating this shifting landscape. Join this session for song/poetry writing, reflection, and using other creative practices to navigate, embrace, and transform chaos. Click here to register.

Aug 3, 5, and 7, 2020

A series of online morning workshops with Jerry Knutson Monday, Wednesday, and Friday mornings

Morning sessions gather around 9:45am ET via Zoom.
10am-10:30am ET worship
10:30am-11:30am ET program

As the ongoing tumult in the world about us continues to stir uncertainty and confusion, our need to remain in intimate touch with our Inner Guide to discern our way is ever more apparent. This series of online morning workshops is based on Jerry Knutson's best-selling Pendle Hill Pamphlet #443, Individual Spiritual Discernment: Receiving, Testing, and Implementing Leadings from a Higher Power, which is required advance reading for participants. Join Steve Davison for an online program exploring The Gathered Meeting August 14-16.

In this program participants will:

Share our experiences of gathered meetings;
Discuss the history of the gathered meeting and its current state in our meetings;
Explore together these questions:

What is a gathered meeting?
How do you know whether a meeting has been gathered?
Why is a gathered meeting important?

How can we foster gathered meetings – as individuals and meetings?

What challenges and opportunities do we find in participating in meeting for worship online?

What role does vocal ministry play in nurturing a gathered meeting?

Steve's pamphlet, PH #444 is recommended reading.
