

Dear Friends,

As the new amis-residents, we are looking forward to welcoming you to Maison Quaker, whether it is your first time or as a returning guest. If you are feeling anything like we are, you are ready to gather and create in this beautiful location!

We currently have space available for our Autumn programmes, and are taking reservations and deposits. You may reserve your spot by clicking here. This year, all deposits are fully refundable for cancellations made for any reason, including travel restrictions.

Our programs are open to all: You needn't be a Quaker, and your non-artist/musician partner or friends are welcome! The facilitated portion of our programmes include accommodation, most meals, and guidance and direction.

Art Retreat: Artist and educator Kate Hale. The Art programme also includes transportation to painting sites.

Music Retreat: Musician and educator Mike Adcock.

All of our programmes include the chance to come a day early and stay a few days longer in order to complete projects, continue making music, and/or sightsee our lovely region. The cost for these days includes breakfast, dinner and transportation to such local sights as market day in the medieval village of Sommieres. Or take off on your own and visit the Pont du Gard, the walled city of Aigues-Mortes, or Provençal attractions. Enjoy walking, cycling on the greenway, or just relax in the Maison Quaker garden.
