

Programmes at Maison Quaker

Dear Friends,

What a rocky summer! After feeling a blessed relief from the worries and restrictions from the last year, we have been busily planning our Art and Music Retreats. And, we are happy to report, that remains unchanged! We have put in some added guidelines to ensure everyone's safety, and will continue to make the safety of our retreats a top priority.

If you are reading this from the UK, we are happy that the UK government announced that fully-vaccinated travellers from France would no longer have to quarantine on arrival. There was even more good news, as the French government said people vaccinated in England or Wales are now able to use the French health pass to access venues here.

And we still have room in both retreats. We are accepting fully vaccinated participants in both events. We will also be supporting all participants in meeting any requirements that may be in place when the retreat occurs. You may reserve your spot by emailing us at centre.quaker.congenies@gmail.com This year, all deposits are fully refundable for cancellations made for any reason, including travel restrictions.

Our programs are open to all: You needn't be a Quaker, and your non-artist/musician partner or friends are welcome!

The facilitated portion of our programmes include accommodation, meals, and guidance and direction.

All of our programmes include the chance to come a day early and stay a few days longer in order to complete projects, continue making music, and/or sightsee our lovely region. The cost for these days includes breakfast, dinner and transportation to such local sights as market day in the medieval village of Sommieres. Or take off on your own and visit the Pont du Gard, the walled city of Aigues-Mortes, or Provençal attractions. Enjoy walking, cycling on the greenway, or just relax in the Maison Quaker garden.

Cost
